

If I ran the world...

Take a few minutes with your family to brainstorm answers to these questions.

Make a list of all the things you're grateful for.

Now make a list of things you wish you could make better in the world.

Who are your real life heroes and why?

If you ran the world, what problem would you fix first?

If you ran the world, what would you make sure every person had?
